

GREEN HOPE THEATRE CODE OF ETHICS

ADAPTED FROM THE CIRCLE PLAYERS, LOS ANGELES, CA, CIRCA 1945

1. I shall never miss a performance.
2. I shall play/work every performance with energy, enthusiasm and to the best of my ability regardless of size of audience, personal illness, bad weather, or accident.
3. I shall forego all social activities which interfere with rehearsals or any other scheduled work at the theatre
4. I shall always be on time.
5. I shall never make a curtain late by my failure to be ready on time.
6. I shall never miss an entrance.
7. I shall never leave the theatre building or the stage area until I have completed my performance and/or duties, unless I am specifically excused by the stage manager; curtain calls are a part of the show.
8. I shall not let the comments of friends, relatives or critics change any phase of my work without proper consultation; I shall not change lines, lights, properties, settings or costumes or any phase of the production without consultation with and permission of my director.
9. I shall forego the gratification of my ego for the demands of the play.
10. I shall remember my business is to create illusion; therefore, I shall not break the illusion by appearing in costume off-stage or outside the theatre.
11. I shall accept my director's advice and counsel in the spirit in which it is given, for he/she can see the production as a whole and my work from the front.
12. I shall never "put on an act" while viewing other artists' work as a member of an audience, nor shall I make caustic criticism from jealousy or for the sake of being smart.
13. I shall respect the play and the playwright and, remembering that "a work of art is not a work of art until it is finished," I shall not condemn a play while it is in rehearsal.
14. I shall not spread rumor or gossip which is malicious and tends to reflect discredit on my show, the theatre, or any personnel connected with them-either to people inside or outside the group.
15. Since I respect the theatre in which I work, I shall do my best to keep it looking clean, orderly and attractive regardless of whether I am specifically assigned to such work or not.
16. I shall handle stage properties and costumes with care for I know they are part of the tools of my trade and are a vital part of the physical production.
17. I shall never lose my enthusiasm for theatre because of disappointments.

I understand that membership/participation in Green Hope Theatre entitles me to the privilege of working, when I am so assigned, in any of the phases of a production, including: props, lights, sound, construction, house management, box office, publicity and stage managing-as well as acting. I realize it is possible I may not get the job I want or the part I want, but I will not allow this to dampen my enthusiasm or desire to work, since I realize without my willingness to do all other phases of theatre work, there would be no theatre for me to my practice and celebrate my love of theatre arts.

Failure to comply with any component of this document can result in my immediate dismissal from Green Hope Theatre at the director's and/or school administrator's discretion.
